She was one of a kind. Very sweet, strong lady to everyone and put up with a lot over the years and dealt with a lot with ease. She will be missed by all and definitely by her family. Lisa, I am so sorry for your loss and will be praying for you and the family.

Ma was fascinating, to say the least. She lived a full life and she loved. I am glad that I got to know her. She may not be here on earth with us now, but she's received the best Christmas gift of all, there's nothing here that could hold a candle to it. For she will be celebrating her first Christmas in heaven this year, waking up to the great heavenly host of the choir of angels singing and celebrating Jesus birthday with Him. Can you imagine how exciting that will be for he!yes, there will be an empty seat sy the table this year, and there will be sadness, missing her presence, but she will live on as you celebrate with your family and share memories. May you feel God's peace, love, and mercy during this difficult time period. Draw strength from above and get closer to the ones that you love.

Many prayers to all the family. Ma was such a special to my family. When my Momma Faye Cobb and Bill Cobb were alive and lived in Greer they came to MA & Me's all the time. When Me and Sam would visit we always had to come to the Bar to visit MA. Such an amazing women. We loved her so much. So many prayers and love to the whole family. She loved her Family so much. We will be there in spirt with yall Thursday. We live in Charlotte NC and can not get off work to be there but know we are thinking about all of yall. I was going through some pictures my mom had Saturday night and 2 fell out of a folder and they were of Ma. I told Sam tonight that was my mom's way from Heaven of saying MA is coming to join them in Heaven. We talked about so many Ma story's Saturday night from visiting the bar in past years. MA sure did love my parents Momma Faye and Daddy Bill.
