“ David and Jacque,
My sincere condolences to you and your family in the loss of your beloved son. My heart aches for you. Praying for peace to bring you comfort and courage to carry on without him. May loving memories keep him forever in your hearts.

“ To the Gambrell Family: We are saddened to hear of Craig’s passing. He would walk down to my daddy’s house and talk with him and my son and they always enjoyed the fellowship. If he was there and they might be eating, daddy and Austin would make him a plate too. The talks about my daddy and the golf course made Craig realize that my family knew his family. May you find peace, comfort and feel Gods love during this most difficult time.

“ David and Jacque,
I am so sad for you. I remember Craig so well as that little guy living across from my mother. I understand your pain and loss, it's so hard. Please know that I am lifting you in prayer. Sandra “ David. This is so sad. I'm so sorry and wished there was something I could do for you.

If there is let me know. I've never been able to understand how parents deal with the loss of a child. Handsome young man. Again. So sorry for your loss my friend. Be strong. Don Dillard Class of '64

“ Craig will be sorely missed by me and my family. We had a rocky start but it turned into a great and beautiful friendship. There was never a dull moment and our neighborhood will never be the same.

I saw this today and thought of you. It's perfect for you.

Your imperfections made you unique and also BEAUTIFUL. Some beautiful things are more impressive when left imperfect than when too highly finished, Our flaws and weaknesses can make us more beautiful! You made mistakes but you were more like-able than anyone who appeared perfect.

Thankyou Craig! We love you. Until we meet again friend.

“ I keep looking over at your house. Wow my heart is so broken.

Angie Keith - March 10 at 12:08 PM

“ While standing in your yard waiting to get in so that we could check on you; we saw a falling star. (It's not really fallen It's just traveling to another location) My wish was that you'd be okay but it just wasn't in God's plan. That falling star represented your life had journeyed on to a better location.

We already miss you terribly.
