“ You always brought out the best in others. Your smile & laughter was so contagious there was no way anyone's bad day could continue once you made an appearance. I will forever miss you and my heart will be missing a piece that you alone provided. Rest in peace, Hunter.

“ As I sit here remembering all the years past Hunter you were special in so many ways and we just never realized it , I am so thankful I got to know my grandson better these past few years , I think I understand so much that many may not know ,he loved his family and friends , and he showed it many times, I will miss my grandson , he had so much life to give but just couldn't stand the pain , not jus physically but mentally also .

He loved to rap , and he did a wonderful job of it , and I told him so , he would say Grandma you just not saying this so you wont hurt my feelings and I would tell him no , Hunter your words make so much sense and he would smile and lower his head .

Misty , my daughter I am here for you whenever you need me , I love you more than words can say .I am so disbelief that he is gone too.

“ Hunter is my grand son , he was a kind sole person , those who didn't really know him may have thought otherwise , but I got to know the real Hunter these past few years and realize he was very good , in many ways, he was quiet around most as he told me once No one cared enough to listen to me, he had once many dreams but he would tell me grandma I just don't think I am good enough to do anything , he had a gift for rapping some many think ah that is not anything , but he had it down pat , even made some cds which I was fortunate to listen to on a road trip thru the mountains not too long ago, and words he used to rap made a lot of sense and a true story of his life . O I will never forget the few but intense conversations we had recently and I will never forget when he was leaving he came back to my door and told me grandma I want you to know I do love you , Hunter , I will always cherish those words, and I know he is with Emily , and Papa Steve and so many others he missed , his buddy Mikey is welcoming him there too .

I feel he left us too soon but I know he is happy now with love ones in Heaven ...
Please say a prayer for Misty and the rest of the family .
