

Joe C. Williams

September 12, 1931 - April 29, 2020

Joe Williams of Greer passed from this life to his eternal home on, Wednesday, April 29th, 2020.

Born in Greer, September 12, 1931 to Dewey H Williams, Sr. and Bernice Brannon Williams, he was one of seven children. Joe grew up at Greer Mill, where he also worked for 20 years; was a member of Burnsvie Baptist Church and a member of the Bailey Masonic Lodge. He was an avid fan of Southern Gospel Music and often referred to himself as Greer's "old gospel man".

He is survived by brothers, Dewey (Skin) Williams of Taylors and Ken Williams (Donna) of Marietta; stepsons, Jerry, Mike and Ricky Starnes and is also survived by very special friends, Janice Hammond, Julie and Scott Holcombe, along with many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents, along with his wife Geraldine Starnes Williams, stepson Roger Starnes; sisters, Clarice Lister and Nelle Griffin; and brothers, Don Williams and Charles Williams.

A private burial will be held at Mountain View Cemetery in Greer. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

The family wishes to express their thanks to Palladium Hospice for their dedicated service to Joe during his last days.

“ We were so blessed to call him Uncle. He was the finest example of a true believer in his Lord. Smart, gentle and kind he could tell a story like no other. We will never hear a gospel song when we won't think of our Uncle Joe and smile. Rest In Peace with your Heavenly Father. You were a treasure.

“ I not only considered Joe Williams my Friend I also considered him a part of my family . I have so many great memories of the times we laughed , told jokes, sang songs, told tales and just had great times together . Joe was a good man , he loved Southern Gospel music and could name everyone that ever sang it .Heaven is Sweeter today because I know Joe is there ! He met the Master and I wish I could hear him tell me about it !! . I loved you Joe Williams and I will miss you . To all the Family Kenny , Donna, Skin and entire family , I will be praying for you all . Janice , Julie and Scott I know your hearts are saddened and my prayers are with y'all today and in the days to follow . Joe is in no pain and we we all see him again . I love you all very much . My Condolences to each of you . Sheri Grant
