

Murray Edgar Clement

December 30, 1932 - September 13, 2020

Our beloved husband, father and grandfather, age 87, went to be with his Precious Savior on September 13, 2020. Ed was born in West Columbia, SC. He spent his life in West Columbia, Irmo and most recently making his home in Lyman, SC. He was a faithful member of Northwood Baptist Church in Greer, SC.

Ed loved golfing, fishing and hunting, but most of all his family. He enjoyed a long career with Southern Bell and then was hired as the first Director of the SC Telephone Association. He was a proud member of the Army National Guard.

He is predeceased by his parents, Jerome and Dora Clement; his son, Ronald and brother, Billy.

He is survived by his wife, Charlene Clement; his son Donald Clement (Debbie); his daughter Wendy Garbinsky; his beloved granddaughter, Shelby Garbinsky and her fiancé David Evans.

Ed was loved and cared for by Charlotte Ford (Hap), Buddy Stanley, Ernie Stanley (Judy), sister-in-law, Marsha Williford and Charlie Stanley (Kelly) during his life and especially the last 8 years of his extended illness.

Private services will be held for the family.

The family is at the home.

Memorials may be made to Northwood Baptist Church, General Fund, 888 Ansel School Road, Greer, SC 29651.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

“ Charlene my long time friend, you have another life change ahead. I'm confident your strong faith will see you, and the family, through this difficult time. You are in my thoughts.

A virtual hug from me.

Love,

Mittie

“ My Deepest Sympathy to my dear friend Charlene and family. We were co-workers for many years which grew into a very close friendship then into a family relationship. We visited each other frequently and Eddie was always so welcoming when I came to visit. He will always be remembered. Love you my friend and family.
