

A. L. Moore III

February 10, 1971 - September 18, 2018

A.L. "Andy" Moore, III, passed away on September 18, 2018.

A native of Lexington, beloved son of Marie Jackson Moore and the late A. L. "Chip" Moore, Jr., he was a chef at Blue Porch Restaurant and of the Presbyterian faith. Andy loved his family and friends, and serving others through cooking.

Surviving in addition to his mother, is one brother, Joe Moore of Waynesville, NC.

Andy was predeceased by his paternal grandparents, A.L. and Margaret Moore and maternal grandparents, Joe and Kathryn Jackson.

A celebration of life will be held 11:00 a.m. Saturday, September 22, 2018 at First Presbyterian Church, Greer, conducted by Dr. Steve Vance and Dr. Dean Thompson.

Visitation will be held following the service at the church.

Memorials may be made to Wounded Warrior Project, P.O. Box 758517, Topeka, Kansas, 66675-8517.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Previous Events

Memorial Service

SEP 22. 11:00 AM (ET)

First Presbyterian Church of Greer
100 School Street
Greer, SC 29651

Tribute Wall

SH

“ I'm so sad to hear this news. I have great memories of growing up with Andy in our elementary and middle school years. We caught up briefly through social media a few years ago. Sure wish we had stayed in touch. My heartfelt condolences to his family and friends.

Sean Helton - November 28, 2018 at 05:18 PM

JC

“ I enjoyed seeing Andy's smiling face when I walked into the Club House at Greer Country Club. Made everyone feel that his greatest desire was to please everyone he waited on. Hard to say this, but "Go Gators" for Andy.

J.C. Crenshaw - September 22, 2018 at 07:36 AM

JM

“ I will keep Andy’s gifts with me for all of my days, and hold them precious.

The big laughs, the sullen silences. The unabashed joy. The long conversations about lost loves and gathering dreams. The not-entirely polite debates about cooking. His impersonations of his teachers.

The day we paid him in burgers him to put a sledgehammer to our bathroom wall, and the giddy fury with which he did it. The way he handled a sword on stage. The way he spoke of plays and songs and movies, of heroes and villains.

The brightness and quickness in his eyes, the intelligence, his abundant heart.

The day he built a massive stage in a stucco courtyard beneath the blinding sun, and raised trusses and trees above it, and laid heavy cables end to end, and stewed in sweat from first light to last, and the joy he took in making every bolt of it hold fast, making it strong for his friends to perform on it.

The serious and surprisingly lengthy conversations about silly things. His moments of anger, and moments of fear, which he shared in earnest hope. The muttering under his breath when things became dull or backwards.

The way he spoke of his family, and of the people he loved the most, and things that made him ache.

The way he thrilled when recalling the damp cool air on the banks of the creek, watching the fire hiss and snap, safe there with stories and songs, safe there with his friends, safe there in the darkness beneath the stars, the holy stars.

— J.F. "Jeff" McCullers

Jeff McCullers - September 22, 2018 at 02:21 AM

KE

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Kellyn Ellwood - September 21, 2018 at 10:03 PM

KE

“ Andy was one of the best friends I've ever had. I am heart broken. Sending you all so much love.

Kellyn Ellwood - September 21, 2018 at 10:00 PM

KE

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Kellyn Ellwood - September 21, 2018 at 09:58 PM

DT

“ Dearest Marie and Joe,
I have special memories of Andy as I had the pleasure of enjoying his chef talents on many occasions. His talents were undeniable and our family was fortunate to have him as the chef at Heather and John’s wedding reception seventeen years ago. Andy was always so loving and pleasant and never failed to reach out with a hug. He will be missed in this life and my prayer for this precious family is that our God will sustain you and carry you through this difficult time. My love and sincere sympathy comes to you today and in the days to follow.

Diane Snow Tuell

Diane Snow Tuell - September 21, 2018 at 06:20 PM

“ Love's Journey was purchased for the family of
A. L. Moore III.

September 21, 2018 at 05:21 PM

KA

“ Sharing some pictures of happy times with Andy — one of the funniest, most talented, loving people I ever knew. My family and I were fortunate to know him. For his mother, brother, aunt, uncle, cousins, and all of his friends, whom he loved so much, I send my love and prayers.

Kari Aasheim - September 21, 2018 at 05:03 PM

Carol Swett

“ He will always be a little boy in my mind along w/ the teenager who discovered he was going to be a big brother. Over the years, I have had many a chuckle over those memories. I never thought of him w/o smiling. I am heartbroken for everyone who loved him because I know he brings the same smiles to them.

Carol Swett - September 21, 2018 at 03:34 PM

“ Enchanted Cottage was purchased for the family of A. L. Moore III.

September 21, 2018 at 02:46 PM

JJ

“ Dear Mrs. Moore & Joe,
I am so saddened by the sudden passing of Andy. I worked with him last year at GCC. He possessed a kind and tender heart and always spoke of his family with much love. He was a friend to so many and will be missed by many. My heart goes out to you both, my sincerest condolences.
Joyce Jones

Joyce Jones - September 21, 2018 at 02:20 PM

DA

Andy was a wonderful human.
He will be missed.
He had talents that few people understood.
So very glad that he got to share them with friends that understood.
My sincerest condolences.
I only met him briefly as a young man.
But in that brief encounter, I felt how special he was.
Peace be with you,

Dona Ainsley - September 21, 2018 at 10:38 PM

CC

Dear Marie and Joe, I didn't know Andy, although I had seen him numerous times when you lived on Ridgewood. I am Nathans 's grandmother and I love Joe as one of my boys. They were always playing ball in my yard and Joe went with us to the beach one summer. My heart goes out to you both.

carole cole - September 24, 2018 at 10:00 AM

DD

Just learned of Andy's death today and found this online. Andy was a Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity brother of mine at Presbyterian College and in my pledge class. He introduced me to the Franklin Covey Day Planner system that his father had let him know about. I saw him at a high school football game several years ago and caught up with him some since I hadn't seen him in 20 years at that point. Great man and brother he was. Wise and thoughtful. Sad to hear of his passing. Peace be with you Andy.

David Dixon - November 24, 2018 at 11:15 PM