“ Adam was a one of a kind. He had a loving, caring and giving spirit. He was full of laughter and love. He was a truly genuine and heart felt person. I have many memories of us and I want to tell Mark and Tammy that you raised a terrific son and I'm glad I got the honor of being able to personally call him my friend and loved him dearly. He will never be forgotten. Your family are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Nicole Mcabee Harrison##imported-end##

“ Tammy & Mark,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you. I don't want to even try to understand what you are going through. I do know that if you just ask God to comfort you, he will. Our family loves Adam so much--he has been a part of our life for so many years and he will never be forgotten.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about your loss. Adam will be missed greatly. He was a well liked young man and a good friend to my son, Chris. They wrestled each other several times durring thier school years and Adam taught him alot. I know that nothing or no one can replace the love of your child, but look around you and you will see him in everything that he touched and loved. Always keep your eyes toward heaven and you will see him there.##imported-begin##Julie Brockman Edwards##imported-end##

“ *I would like to send the deepest condolences to Adam's family and friends. I have seen his facebook page and it seems he had a full and wonderful life that was cut short. This accident was tragic and God's reason is yet unknown. Although we do not know you all, I send love and sorrow. May God be with you during this sad time.

“ Mark and Tammy, I'd like to say that Adam is loved by so many people. To me, he was the truest and best friend anyone could ask for. He had a way of making anyone around him happy and would always do what he could to cheer you up if he knew you were down. It was a blessing from God to of been able to call Adam a friend, and to of been able to make numerous memories of time spent in his company. I want you to know that I loved Adam like a brother, and I love you. Your family is in my prayers as I ask for the peace of God, which passes all understanding to come down upon you and comfort you.

With love, Austin##imported-begin##Austin Weathers##imported-end##

“ This is a time when no words can describe one's feelings or thoughts of such a great loss. Adam will always be remembered as a young man who climbed many great mountains, achieved many great accomplishments, and had a wonderful future ahead of him. Our hearts are broken for the loss of Adam, and the loss to his family (Tammy, Mark, Ashley). We will not say goodbye but instead keep your memory in our hearts forever.

“ Tammy, I just wanted to express sympathy on behalf of Asheton and myself in this time of terrible loss. Asheton is in the Army in Korea and heard the news about Adam early Friday morning from other young people in the Woodruff area. She especially wanted you to know that was praying for you and was thinking about you. I know that there are no words to express enough sympathy for you, Mark, Ashley and all your family but please know that you are in our prayers.##imported-begin##Debbie and Asheton Frady##imported-end##

“ Our family has an opportunity to come in contact with many young people through our business. We have watched them grow into young men and women. Adam had to be one the finest young men who we were blessed to come in contact with. His smile, his heart, his caring, his gentleness....His love for life...I could go on forever..... He will truly be missed and we thank God for letting Adam's path cross ours.

To Adam's family, what a wonderfull son you raised. He was and still will be in the conversation that I have with my 10 year old. If there was ever an example of someone who you wanted your son to be like...it would be Adam. Our thoughts and Prays will be with you during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Ray and Dina
