“ Dear Cook family,
I have gotten to know your family thru Maggie in the nursery at church. She is a wonderful little girl and I can tell how much she and Winston are loved by the way Maggie lights up when she sees her daddy come to pick her up. I am very sorry for you loss and will continue to pray for your family. Please let me know if I can do anything for you.

“ As member of the nursing faculty here at Clemson University, I wanted to offer my heartfelt sympathies for the loss of your son. Losing a child is one of the saddest experiencies one can face. Parents never expect to outlive their children. Know that we are thinking of you and your family during this time and that you remain in our prayers.###imported-begin###Janice Lanham, Nursing Faculty Clemson University###imported-end##

“ Laura and Jeff,
I was at the mservice yesterday, but I wanted you to know how much you are in my thoughts and prayers. I hope Winston meets my daughter, Elizabeth, in Paradise until I can been with her and you with him. It's good to know the love you share and the inner strength you both have to give each other will sustain you through this. Take care and may the Lord have you in his protective arms to guide you through this difficult time.

“ Dr. Cook, my family and I were so sorry to hear about your loss. I have been praying for you and your family since I heard that Winston was ill and will continue to pray for your family through this difficult time. If there is anything you need at all please call. The Lord has something great in store for you and your family and Winston is right where God wants him. I am so sorry Dr. Cook because it must still really hurt even though it is God's will. Please call if you need anything. Sincerely one of your students, Traci Fish and her family.##imported-begin##Traci Fish and family##imported-end##

“ Dear Dr. & Mrs. Cook and family,

Our prayers are with you during this difficult time. This must be when the angels have to speak for us for words are so empty and in vain. It is times as such that we can only crawl up into the lap of our heavenly Father and receive His hugs.

In Christ love,

“"God's Lent Child' I'll lend you for a little time a child of mine, He said. For you to love while he lives and mourn for when he's dead. It may be nine or eleven years, maybe twenty-two or three. But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for me? He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and shall his stay be brief, you'll have his lovely memories A solace for your grief. I cannot promise that he will stay since all from earth return, but there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn. I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true, and from the throngs that crowds Life's lanes, I've selected you. Now will you give him all your love nor think the labor vain? Nor hate me when I come to call to take him home again? I fancied I heard them say, 'Dear Lord, thy will be done!'" For all the joy thy thy child shall bring the risk of grief we'll run. We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may, and for happiness we have known forever grateful stay. But shall the angels call for him, much sooner than we had planned, We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand."

You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Jeff and Laura,
My family sends our condolences in your time of sorrow.
There is no greater love than a parent has for a child.
Our prayers and thoughts are with your family.
Kevin, Susan, Jonathan, Sarah, Caitlin, and Grayson Conley

My Little Angel
I felt your presence there inside of me,
nestled soft and warm;
Sweet scent of baby's breath,
precious words left unadorned.

I saw your tiny heartbeat,
then I knew that you were fine;
A perfect baby we created,
one that would be mine.

Then that tragic day it came
there was nothing I could do,
Only wait and hope for the precious life of you.

Yes in the beginning
your daddy was afraid;
Only he would love you unconditional
and never run away.

He loved you more this I do know,
as he cried for you that day,
When the doctor said that you were gone,
daddy wanted you to stay.

He would have held you close to him,
and see your perfect form,
A gift of daddy's love,
would have kept you safe and warm.

*Only now you are an angel over me
beautiful and bare,
My heart would hurt if you cried for me
and mommy was not there.*

*Still we are together in my heart and memories,
You are still a part of my memory.*

*Rest gentle now 'sweet baby' there is no pain
you are never alone,
I know you are with the guiding angels
in you peaceful home.*

*I will come with you someday
only now is not my time,
Then we will be together again again you will be mine.##imported-begin##Kevin
