Tribute Wall

“ I was very saddened to hear that Aunt Agnes had died. She was a joy to be around and certainly loved her Lord and would tell anyone when she had a chance. She has been a great supporter and encourager to me and my mother over the years. I know she prayed for many, including me and rejoiced to see God answer those prayers. She has now entered the place God promises to all who put their trust in Him, heaven. Her example and Christian witness will live on in the lives of those she touched. She will be missed by us all.

May the joy of the Lord, that she had, continue to be experienced by her family and friends. I loved her very much. Love and prayers.##imported-begin##Fred Edwards##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry about Aunt Agnes. She was truly a jewel. I loved her dearly she was such a sweet person and always was smiling and wanted a hug. I can only imagine what she heard when she entered the gates of heaven. I know that she is in the arms of Jesus now and will be waiting on us when we get there... I love you all.##imported-begin##Leslie Shelton##imported-end##
