“ I met Mr. Dickson the very first day my Mom moved to White Oak. He was most gracious in helping us adjust to the change and I was grateful to him and Linda for that. Within days, seeing him and Miss Thelma was an added highlight to my many daily visits. We became close friends and shared so many stories, laughs and also sadness, I sat with him at many meals while we fed our loved ones and those moments will never be forgotten. Later on I looked forward to his phone call and hearing " Hey gal, meet me on the westside because I have you a bag of tomatoes." ( the best tasting ever) We would reminisce and laugh like crazy and I am sure people passing by were amused! Many times I stopped by his home and again we laughed and shared. He loved hearing my travel stories and I loved hearing his " back when I was younger tales. "He was such a kind and special southern gentleman and I will miss him greatly. I am happy that he has been reunited with his love, Miss Thelma. May God's peace be with their family.
