“ Your sweet Daughter and my Daughter Cassie were friends in the youth group in middle school. The pain that you are feeling I pray is lessened by the prayers and love of friends and family. Mostly I pray that you will feel the arms of Jesus carrying you through.

“ Even if it's hard to believe, I have prayed for you at least once a week since 2013. You were there for me during my injury and recovery, you were the best English classmate.... I still remember you pregnant and the dress I gave you for your little girl.

You were a delight of a person; incredibly talented, smart, sweet and dedicated... and it is sad to know you are no longer with us. I'll continue to pray for your family, especially your two daughters, and continue to trust in the fact that God has perfect plans, and that he is and will be in control.

We will miss you girl, and I'll see you again soon.

*Warmest regards,

“ Alexis was one of my 5th graders. Her beautiful spirit filled our classroom to overflowing. I loved getting to know her and being a part of her education. Besides being highly intelligent, Alexis was a gifted musician and writer. Her external beauty was matched by her internal beauty. The world is lessened by the loss of this amazing young lady. My heart hurts.
