“ My family joins me in extending your family our deepest sympathies on Alfred's passing.

I don't remember ever not knowing him. He knew my father's grandparents and parents. They were gone long before I was born, and it was Alfred who told me about them. He was the most trusted right hand to my father. Alfred was the one I depended on to take me places and pick me up...and he was always there and on time. My brothers felt the same way. "Call Alfred," we said all the time.

Alfred and Irene. Like cream and sugar, the words always came out at the same time. They were part of our family for the longest time. Alfred was so very devoted to Irene. And she to him. Alfred and Irene. Finally back together...

When I had my own children, I told them about Alfred, so, in many ways, his caring for me touched them, too. They knew who Alfred was and that he continued to be in my life. They are saddened by his passing...they know how much he means to me.

Alfred Sawyer was one of the finest gentlemen I have ever had the privilege to know. I am proud to have had him in my life. You, his real family, know what I mean.

Alfred, I hope the coffee is good up there! Say hello to Irene for me, too! Hugs and love! xoxoxoxo###imported-begin###Roni Holtsberg Lefcort###imported-end###

“ Dearest families,

I can not express words enough to tell how much your love and kindest caring and support of my uncle has meant to me and our family. Esoecially to my mother when she was still with me. My uncle was the dearest person in the world to me when I was growing up. Where ever he was I knew and felt his love for me and for my mother. It saddens me that we had been apart for so long and that I did not get the chance to say good bye. I will be with you all in spirit today. He is reunited with two of the poeple he loved the most, his wife Irene, your mother and grandmother and his dear sister, my mother, Rosalina. They have waited a long time for him. I am sure that when we are reunited with him, he will welcome us with much love and open arms. I know he will always be with us until that time. All I can say to all of you who are also grieving is thank you and God bless.

“ I want each of you to know how sorry I am in your loss of "Pop- O". I am so glad I had the opportunity to meet him and get to know him, he was a sweet man. I was able to see him and visit with him when he and my daddy were at Healthsouth Rehab some years back and I always enjoyed chatting with him. Please know that I am praying for you'all and keeping you in my thoughts. Pop-O was truly blessed with a loving and caring family and all of you should be commended for the time, love and care you gave him. My prayer is that God will bring comfort, peace and strength to your heart at this time. My love & prayers, Ann Mitchell##imported-begin##Ann Mitchell##imported-end##
