*Debbie and Tommy,
I am so sorry I couldn't be at your precious Mother's service. I have such great memories of our parents and our dear Mother's friendship. Now our parents are together in heaven just like they did my entire childhood. I loved your Mother so much. I am so sorry for your loss.

Thank you for this beautiful tribute video showing Alice with family and friends in different special settings. The musical background and hymn reminded me of the singing she and Richard would do in different churches. She's singing the praises of Jesus in person now. Praying for you folks in your loss!
