“ Jennie Sue, Charlene, April and family. I can't imagine how heartbroken you are feeling right now, i know it's painful. This horrible tragedy has so many people at a loss of words, not knowing what to say to help with your pain and grief. Alisha was such a babydoll when she was little with the prettiest curls and became a beautiful woman. Jennie I know you were proud of her for always being a Christian and never giving up. And Alisha finding the love of her life and was looking forward to spending it with Arin. Alisha is an Angel in Heaven now and will always be with you all, watching over you. I love you Jennie Sue and I love Charlene also. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
.Love,
Susan Williams.

“ Alisha was just a little girl when I met her. She was always smiling. I will never forget her sweet little face and those gorgeous curls in her hair. She grew up into a beautiful lady with a huge heart and a love for the lord that came from her mom. You are all in my prayers.

“ I didn't know Alisha very well but what little I was around her I could tell how very much she loved her family. She was so excited to have two precious nieces. She loved her Mom, sister, Aunt and all of her family. She was full of energy. A bright light indeed.
