“ I worked many years with Allan on the Crown Food Truck. We were all very close and worked hard but had a great time doing it. Allan was always taking care of the outside duties and enjoyed talking with the members and staff. He mentioned to my husband and I that he had never been to the DCI World Championships so in 2004 my husband drove our motorhome to Denver to meet up with the Corps and Allan came with him. Allan was one of the most gentle, kind and loving souls that i have had the pleasure to call my friend.

Allan was my husband's best friend since 2nd grade. He was our Best Man, our daughters Godfather and much more to our family. I know that he is finally at peace in the Lord's arms.
