“ Jessica we never had the pleasure to meet, however your husband was an amazing man who loved you and your babies without doubt. I know He struggled as have I but I also know that man would move mountains. He's home now and I know Will be watching over y'all. Please take my condolences. My husband and I are so sad that we can't make the service. We loved him greatly. You are in my prayers every day.

“ *To Andrew's Family and Friends,
We are saddened to hear the loss of Andrew.
He was a talented young man and Austin learned a lot the time he worked with him He's at peace and may you feel God's love, mercy and grace during this most difficult time. You are in our thoughts and prayers.*

*Sincerely,

“ Jessica, I'm sure you don't remember me but I am Jason Few's Mom. I met you briefly around the time Tinsley was born. The sad news has made my heart hurt for you and your beautiful children. I didn't know Andrew but from all I see he was a fine young man to be proud of. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Roger I am so sorry to hear of Andrew's passing. He was always such a sweet young man. We rest assured knowing he is with his precious mother and that sweet, funny grandmother. Mildred has him in her loving arms and I can just hear her now telling him more funny stories. He is at peace now and has seen the beautiful face of Jesus. Prayers for all of you. Roger we miss seeing you at His Vineyard at the early service. Mertie Taylor

“ Our prayers go out to Andrew's family and his wife, Jessica. I pray for peace and comfort for all his young children that will find it hard to understand. Just know that he did love you all. It's so hard to piece together the right things to say . Just know that God is in control and He has a plan for you all. Please keep the faith of Christ.
