“ Sweet Landon, I miss your presence on this earth so dearly. When young people die, everyone says "there was no one like them, they lit up rooms", and for you that was true in every sense. You were so unapologetically you. It didn't matter if we were arguing, you could still make me laugh in the middle of it. Your soul was too beautiful to stay for long- I know that now. I've thought about you for years, wishing you were still here, wishing I could say sorry to you, wishing you could make me laugh again. All I have are the videos of our memories. Those videos still make me laugh years later love. You had a gift - making people happy. You were one of the last people I could be my true, unmasked self around. You never judged anyone. I look for your soul in everyone I meet. Do you hear me, love, when I am praying to you? I hope so. You're still on my mind Andrew. I know you'd kill me for using your name if you were here, and I'd be glad to let you do it. If you happen to come across this Ginger, don't be sad about any bad memory with our sweet boy. Those memories shaped him into someone who still influences so many to this day. I will never forget the wonderful, beautiful boy you raised. Thank you for taking such good care of him during his time on earth.

“ It was wonderful to have worked with Landon for the short time I did. He was such a bright and happy person. He was wonderful to be around and have fun/joke with. I remember talking to him when he got his first pay check.. Laughing with him when he saw what "taxes" were. He will forever be missed. To the Mutt's Family, we have lost a wonderful, kind soul. Prayers for Ricky, Ginger and Family.
