“ Today marks one year since the last time I've seen you. I know in my heart you love Cody and myself but that still does not take away this hurt and pain. I've asked myself "why" every day for a year and there are still no answers that are enough to stop this pain. I'll never have another friend like you - you are the best and I miss you terribly. I hope you have found the peace you were searching for. I love you.##imported-begin##Peggy##imported-end##

“ JC,
Darlene and my little sister, Rhonda, were best friends when they were young. Being so much older than the two of them I remember taking them places..to play and to school. Darlene was such a joy to be around, always smiling and in a good mood.
I was so sorry to hear of Darlene's passing my thoughts and prayers are with you and her son.##imported-begin##Rena McAbee Hamrick##imported-end##

“ Cody, you may not remember me, but I've known you since you were a toddler through Andy and Julie (my grandchildren) and Peggy. She brought you to my house several times when you were small, and you were so good. You're in our thoughts and prayers. Study hard and make your Mom proud of you (she was already proud of you). “Darlene, you were like a mother to me. You came to watch me play baseball, basketball and football and you were always so supportive of me and all my achievements. You always asked how I was doing and every time I came home you would try and make time to come see me. Thank you for that and everything else you have done for me and my family. You definitely hold an extra special place in all of our hearts.

Cody, I cannot believe that you are as old as you are. You are making me feel old. Keep your head on straight and make your mother and father proud. You have great potential if you will allow yourself to go the extra little bit it sometimes takes. I have known you since you were probably about 4 or 5 years old. You are like the little brother that I never had. Be strong and stay focused big man. Let me know if you ever need anything. If you need to talk give me a call. (864)420-5512.

You two are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Andy Cox##imported-end##

“ Dear Cody and family,
I am thinking of you all and praying for a peace that will comfort your hearts. My dad gave me this Bible verse when I was in college and it has never left me...I often think of the words and they help comfort me and I hope it will you as well. Matthew 11:25-30 Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

Cody, please do not blame yourself...make your family proud and be the young man your mom would have loved to have seen. Seek out those who will help you in the coming days and don't be afraid to let your emotions show. I will miss you next year and all your silly questions such as "Are we watching a movie?" :) Take care of yourself!##imported-begin##Ashley Causey##imported-end##

“ I hadn't seen Darlene in a couple of years. I met her when we were teenagers. Whenever I did see her over the years out somewhere, it was as we'd just left off. I will always remember her infectious smile. To her family, especially her son, may God give you strength and fill your life with blessings so that you may grow up and make your Mom proud.##imported-begin##Melissa##imported-end##

“ I had only known Dar for 2 years now, but I will say that she was one of the most fantastic people I've ever met. Always laughing and joking around at work, and a blast to hang out with on our days off. She always had a funny story to tell, and Cody, you were her world! She loved you so much, I know you've never met me, but I feel like I already know you just from the conversations your mom and I had. She was a wonderful person, and a good soul. I will miss her terribly-love you Dar! And to her family, you are in my thoughts and prayers every day.##imported-begin##Amy##imported-end##
