“ I am a relative by marriage. I did not know Angeline personally, but the service provided me a view of a woman I wish I had known. Her life was dedicated to family and friends. They thought well of her life will inspire family and others to follow her lead to make our world a better place. Angeline has my respect and I have the deepest regret I did not know her personally. I would have loved to know her personally.

The ketchup story really touched me and showed how much friends thought of her life. I am sad she is gone, but her life has enriched my own life. Family and friends will miss her!

“ Bob, Paige, and all of Angie's family, you know we loved her as much as you did, and we are heartbroken. Of the hundreds of memories I'll cherish, my favorite is Baby Tay's unparalleled love for Angie and my shocking discovery that she was sneaking him Cool Whip over my shoulder, from behind me, as I held him! =) She was my older sister/younger mother/priceless friend, and I cannot wait to see her again. We love you all.
