“ What a beautiful, precious woman! It was an honor to have her here at Thrive At Greer. She, along with her sweet daughter, Sandy, who visited faithfully, will be greatly missed!

“ Mom remained sassy even up to a few days before she passed. She had a sense of humor and always had a smile on her face when engaged. Two days before her death, I brought up her job in the candy store she worked in when she was 18. I mentioned her bosses name (who told her to eat all the candy she wanted) and she smiled. She said he was wise because she got so sick, she never ate the candy again.
Mom played the organ and loved classical music.
She lost her first husband in 1953 and was left with 3 young children. She raised us and never worked- staying at home to take care of us. I will always remember that she was always there for us. I treasure that I was able to tell her how much she meant to me before she passed.
