“ My Aunt Annie Lou was like another grandmother to me. I remember sitting on her floor at Christmas time looking forward to the spread of food on her kitchen island. Her home was always warm and inviting. Her sweet, “Hello Sugar” I’ll look forward to hearing one day again in Heaven.

Love you!

“ Although small in stature, Aunt Annie Lou's impact on my life and many others was far from small. From the first time I met her, when I married her nephew Joe, she treated me like I've been in the family forever. I will miss her sweet laugh, her calming, meek presence. She surely was a rock, but abounding in the gentleness of Christ. What a true southern lady who loved God and her family. Heaven's gain, our loss. Till we meet again across the Jordan... love you Anne. ❤️

“ My Aunt Anne Lou was the best. Always a treat to see her and Uncle Kenneth. I will never forget the cross-country trip they took me on with her family. That was around 1975 all the way to California. I was maybe 14. That was an adventure for sure. Aunt Ann and Uncle Kenneth are a true Christian witness to all that know them. In the arms of JESUS our Savior.

“ Ann Norton was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. Always a smile and hug at church. We enjoyed our infamous motor home trips especially the West Virginia trip.

We don't just grieve because we have lost our precious Anne, we grieve because we remember. In remembering there is something to hold onto. There is gratitude for having had her in our lives. I have loved her since I was five years old. I will love her and remember her forever. Rona Johnson..." 73".
