“ April reached out to me when I was going through medical treatments. I had just met her and she offered to go to appointments with me. I was amazed with her for wanting to help a stranger. Every time I saw her she smiled so very sweetly. She had such a calm silence with a welcoming presence. I was very blessed to meet such a wonderful friend. She will be dearly missed. Always in my heart.

“ April and I worked together at Mary Black . She was such a sweet soft spoken person except wulhen she had to play sec a tech and it got under her skin!!! She was a fantastic knitter . Her pieces were gorgeous. She told me that she learn the craft from an older lady. April said she wanted to beable to knit when she was older to stay busy. I'm so sad this happened to her. She also went bike riding and hiking with me. Her laugh was precious!
