“ Growing up, it was so fun to be a Sloan grandchild. Family members always enjoyed gathering at Papa and Grandma's house up the hill on Sloan Road in Holly Springs. Whenever my aunt and uncle, Audrey and Harold, would get in the car to head back to their house in Greer, Audrey would roll down the front passenger window to wave and merrily say to all of us with a twinkle in her eye and a big smile, "Come go with us!" By this, she was inviting us come on over to her home where we would be as welcome as could be. One day, we grandchildren decided to take her up on her offer. Into the backseat we all tumbled, the whole pack of us, full of giggles!

I will always remember Audrey's loving, kind, and generous spirit, always ready to give of herself to others. We will miss you, Audrey!
