“ *Bob and family,
Our deepest sympathy in the loss of Barbara. She was my camp partner as teenagers. Two silly girls. Good memories. May God give you strength to go forward with loving thoughts and precious memories.*

“ Sending Prayers to the Blanton's and Padgett's. I remember Barbara as a very caring person. Her parents were a blessing to know. Her sister, Carolyn and I graduated from Byrnes together and her brother, Terry, is my precious son-in-law. May God Bless and Comfort each one in the days ahead.

“ I always remember Barbara Blanton as a gracious lady who loved her family and her church. I remember all the family reunions we shared. I rejoice that she never has to deal with that terrible disease again. God is holding her hand now.
I don't have the energy to stand in the line tonight, but my husband, Joe, will be there for your support, and I will be holding your families in my prayers. I love you all.
