“ A moment that I will always remember, and can still see in my mind. Was the day my mother took me to visit Barbara at the hospital, after she gave birth to her first child Sharon. I was too young to go into the maternity ward to visit her and my new niece. So Barbara came to the window to say hello to me. I had never seen her look more beautiful or happy in her entire life! Little did I know that she would look exactly the same at the birth of Sheila, Debbie, Douglas, and Michael. She truly loved her family!
