“ I was thinking about Barbara and wanting to try to make contact with her again and, tragically, I stumbled on her obituary instead. The world has lost a truly good and wonderful person. I worked with Barbara in the mid-seventies at Sherwood Chevrolet. I came to know her as a woman of deep and abiding faith, kindness and principles. She has stood in my memory as one of the rare people who lived her faith, and didn't just pay it lip service. What an example she was to the rest of us. I pray her family finds peace and comfort in knowing they will see her again some day.
