“ Deanna and Clare, your mom was awesome. She was invested in her church family and was a constant in my life growing up. I thought of her fondly after I have moved away and will continue to pray for her and your whole family because of the impression she made on me. She always had a sassy comment to make, a compliment to give, encouragement when things were down, and a way to bring me back to earth if I was ever too ‘high.’ Your entire family is like that. I guess it’s part of the legacy both of your parents left. They were real people who raised real people. I hope the depth of your grief is brief because life is short and you both have so much to smile about!

Rachel, Zach, Aaron, Carl & Anna, your grandma loved you all so much. You were often the topic of conversation when we would chat. She was so proud of all of you (most of the time) and cared very much about everything you were doing— literally everything. I can’t imagine how excited she must have been about welcoming her great-grandchildren over the last several years! I believe that she is still praying for you, because not even death would stop that woman from praying for you and your babies. I wish I could be there to hug you all in person!

“ My visits with Barb over the past month or so have reminded me of what a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and woman she was! Gratefully we were given the time to reconnect and pray!
Rest awhile Barb, then find Rob!
