“ Barb and I met in 1972 when I answered a newspaper ad to become her roommate. We haven't seen each other in years, but we kept in touch through exchange of cards, letters, gifts, and phone calls. When I couldn't reach her by phone, I perused the local papers of Greenville area. I am saddened by the loss of my long time friend. I am so sorry for your loss. Barbara recently told me how proud she was of her nephew and niece. I am sure they will miss her too...once again I am so sorry. I am keeping Barbara's family and friends in my prayers.##imported-begin##Teresa Evans Corley##imported-end##
