“ Art:
Shelley Arrowood sent me an email about the loss of your wife. I remembered that she had been ill but did not realize the extent of her illness. My prayers are with you.

To update: BJ (the cat you gave me) is the only boy cat in our brode of four. He has been such a sweet addition to the family though wild as a buck sometimes (grin). Thank you for sharing your kindness with me.

The Lord be with you and yours during this difficult time,

“ I was shocked to hear of your loss. Mrs. Taylor was a joy to work with and she spent a lot of time volunteering at Chandler Creek Elementary and we are so grateful for that. She had a smile that never stopped. She will be missed. Our thoughts and prayer goes to Mrs. Taylor's family, especially Bryson.

“ My prayers are with each of you. I have prayed for God to wrap his arms around you, hold you close, and to feel his presence with you. Barbara was a dear, wonderful lady and loved, so loved, by so many people. I learned from Barbara the importance of hugs to a child coming into church in the morning and to never be afraid to tell them you love them. I will always miss her sitting in her chair at the class room door waiting to give out those hugs of love from the heart.##imported-begin##Melita Wilson##imported-end##

“ Dear Taylor Family,
I was so shocked and saddened to hear of the loss of Ms. Barbara. She was such a special lady-- she had both my girls in her class years ago-- and she always remembered them and ALWAYS went out of her way to say hello to them and to us. Of all the hundres of 3-year olds that went through her class, I thought it was very sweet of her to not "forget" us. I'm sure we're not the only ones who feel this way.

I'm so, so sorry for your loss and I pray that God will bring you peace and strength to go on with lilfe here justs as Ms. Barbara would have!! She always had a smile on her face and encouraging words to share. I feel so privileged to have had a chance to know her.

God bless you all in this most difficult time.

Sincerely,

“ Miss Barabara,
The boys looked for you today. we thought maybe you stayed home with the familily from all the turkey. After church was over, someone gave us a flyer telling us of your passing. We were so upset. We do not have the heart to tell the kids yet. Matthew was so looking forward to moving up to your class. You are an Angel. Everyone loves you. We were so blessed that you came into our lives and many others. We will miss you and think of you in your chair outside your class. God was waiting for you in his chair. we love you.
