“ Hi Sandy,Shane Suzanne,
It is going to take a long time to adjust to not having my friend of 40 plus years to buddy around with. Words cannot express how thankful I am to have had the honor to be with my friend as he left this life on earth. I still cannot believe that he has slipped away from us. I wish that I had made sure he knew how much I valued our friendship .To not get a phone call from him leaves me in a sense of loss that can't be filled. We won't ever forget Barry.We can continue to extend his kindness to others as we live our lives and remember the we don't go thru this life all by ourselves. Sometimes I forget that this is not our final home,we are just passing thru but I sure wish Barry could have stayed awhile longer.
It really makes me happy to know Barry now has perfect knees , no more wobbling around on those man made joints.In closing just think of the difference Barry has made in our lives and the lives of others. I have been blessed that our paths crossed so many years ago.
Barry may be gone but not forgotten.
Call me if you need me.

“Uncle Barry” was the best uncle you could ever want. He will be missed so much. The memories he created and made started very early for me. He got us frequently, Kris and me to come over and hang out. We had more fun doing all sorts of things, like, helping build brick columns and fences. Riding mopeds, go-carts shooting guns, sling shots. Being around Barry as we all aged continued to be as much fun. Riding around, going for walks, visiting the cabin, what a great example of a friend and dad. He was integrity, solid, a rock and much more than words can possibly say. His children and grandchildren were indeed very blessed to have such a guy in the gift of life. Enjoy all those memories, we will all see Barry in a blink!!
