“ I am sorry to hear about Ben. Hold onto your wonderful memories of the man you loved unconditionally, the person who loved you more than you could ever realize at times, and never let go of the things you are grateful for. There is no bond stronger than the one that exists in a family. It allows us to fail, to learn from our mistakes, to love. It is how we develop into who we are. God love is stronger and He will sustain all of your pain and suffering in His healing power, touch, mercy and grace. May you find peace.
Respectfully, Angie Ashmore Kruse

“ I am so sorry to hear of Ben's passing, and I grieve for you as family. Ben and I were in the same 'Freedom that Lasts' small group at Faith Baptist. What a friendly and easy-to-get-to-know young man. He shared with me about his love for his work, and hunting. We will miss him, but am so glad for his relationship with Christ, in whose presence He now is.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I got to know him as he studied with us at Faith Baptist's Freedom That Lasts. Ben was an amazing young man with a warm smile and a great talent for carpentry. He showed me pictures of some of the decks he had built and they were beautiful! We will greatly miss him and are praying for you his family.
