“ Dear Prince family please know that my bother Jim and I send our thoughts and prayers to you in the homegoing of your Dad. I have so many fond memories of your parents. I always thought of your mother as the neighborhood mom. Some of us had working mom's and your mom was always there for us. We looked forward to the cookies and whatever she wanted to fix for the neighborhood ball games in the field across from your home. I will hold them both dear to my heart. I await the day when I see them again in heaven. When we were young it seemed as though we would never grow up. Time has slipped away from us and our families have gone their separate ways but there is a day coming when there will be no more separation. May you know how blessed you have been to have such wonderful parents. Peggy Fletcher Anderson###imported-begin###Peggy Fletcher Anderson###imported-end##
