“ I just learned about this today when I visited my mother, Julia Huggins, who was a few rooms down from Betty at White Oak. I certainly enjoyed getting to know her these last two years and trying out recipes she shared. My grandson, Mason, always looked for her. When I went there today, everyone was talking about how much she is already missed. She was a fine lady. It won't be the same without her as she was so involved in the activities there. My sympathy to all of you. I enjoyed meeting many of you as well!
