“ I was in the company of Betty only a few times, but each time I felt the sweetest spirit from her. Her children and grandchildren (and great-grandchildren) will miss her, but they have many wonderful memories to carry with them into the future. I will remember how Betty always inquired about me and my well being through her daughter and my dearest friend, Kathy Bennett. RIP Betty.

“ So so sorry to hear of Betty Jean's passing she was a beautiful lady inside out. She and my mom (Evelyn Brockman Davis) went to Beauty School together in the 40's and they went on many vacations together. I have so many photos of Betty Jean and Alan with mom and dad. Thoughts and prayers for all the family. With our prayers and love, Tommy and Teresa Davis Allen
