“ Faithful servant comes to mind as I remember a sweet precious friend!
She and Charles were inspiring and always helping when needed!
No doubt, she has been welcomed home with... “WELL DONE THY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT”!

“ Ms. Betty as I called her was always filled with grace and kindness to me and others. She and Mr. Charles were a real team in Christ Jesus. She lived her granddaughter and spoke of her often when we worked together in Good News Club. She was always smiling and supportive. She was a giver of herself. I admired her for her strength of character and her love and her husband and family. She now gets to see all that we have talked about for years. Love to you Mr. Charles ... I know you will miss her greatly. I look forward to seeing her again someday. Dale Russell and Jim “ Betty Collins was one of the kindest, friendliest people you would ever meet. She was faithful to her church, friends and family. Every week she greeted me and my family with the warmest smile and kind words you could imagine. Thank you Betty for being such a kind, dear friend. I will miss you. Charles, be assured of our continued prayers for you and your children.
