“ I Lived next door to Betty and her parents on Carolina Ave. She was a few years older than me but we played together all the time. When she became a majorette at GHS, she thought me how to twirl.. I was so excited. Her dad bought her a horse and Betty let me ride it many times...I always thought she was a beauty queen...it was several years ago that we reconnected at a GHS oldies event.. we began communicating through Facebook...Betty Ann was a sweet person with a kind heart. I will miss her.... 🌹
