*To everyone in Betty's family. She and I were in Duncan School together all the way to graduation. We had many fun times during those years. Betty was faithful to always be at the Reunion of our Class of 1946 as long as we were able to have them. Wish I had known earlier, I would have been there for her Celebration. Our next class Reunion will be in Glory Land since we are all 90 and over. You're in our prayers with LOVE!

“ My Aunt Betty always said kind words to everyone she saw. She always asked me how I was doing in school and how my girls were doing. She was always so sweet, caring and sincere to everyone in our family. We will miss her greatly. We love you Aunt Betty. See you in heaven.
