“ Words can not begin to express my complete feelings. The memorial service was so sweet and comforting. I found myself seeing Billie through so many things that were expressed during her service. It was a wonderful tribute to her life and she lived it to the fullest. She loved, laughed and walked the walk. I learned so much from her and I know that she helped make me a better person by just being herself. She will be missed by all, especially you the family and friends that loved her most. Thank you for accepting me into your life and family as she was a special friend and lady to me and my family. As she is absent in her body, she is present with her Lord and I am excited to know that I will see her again in heaven. She is in her gloried body and not struggling anymore and I can see her running with the horses and relaxing by the spring in heaven with her mother and daddy. She is walking and talking with Jesus and I can see her clap her hands as she sings glory. The songs, scripture, prayers and words that were shared were truly a blessing and Billie will always be present in our hearts. I will continue to keep the families in my prayers during this difficult time and this upcoming new year.

“ Vanessa and Kellie, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your Mom. Know my thoughts and prayers are with you during this very difficult time. You probably don't know this, but she was one of the first people I met when I moved here from Atlanta. Where does an out of state "horse person" go to get info about horse stuff in the area? At that time, Latigo Corner, where I met your Mom & Dad. Funny that our paths followed each other to both of us ending up in real estate. Hugs to both of you!###imported-begin##Abbey Sheftel Turner###imported-end##

“ Dear Family & Friends,

I believe that Billie was a very positive "individual,"and gave a personal touch to those of us who were either close to her or who came into contact with her. Her smile and concern for "helping others" will always be remembered, From one who knew her from the days of Latigo Corner to the days of working in close conjunction with her for a while at Realty Pros.....my prayers will continue to be with all you, her family and friends, and colleagues. What a special lady!###imported-begin##Sondra Newman Smith###imported-end##
