“ To Steve, Michael, Jamie, Adrienne -
Billie was a precious and dear Godly lady. She witnessed to all she met and lived the life that led her to be loved by so many. What a testimony and legend she has left behind. She loved her family so much. No matter how she was feeling, she always made everyone around her know that they were loved and a priority in her life. My deepest sympathies to you all now during this difficult time.

“ My condolences to the entire McGregor family.

Billie was a wonderful neighbor. She always had a wonderful, sunny disposition and positive attitude. She had to be the strongest woman I have ever met, a true fighter if I ever met one.

I am going to miss her and going over to "sit a spell" as she would say.

“ Steve, Mike,
So very sorry to know your Mother has left you, only to reunite with your Daddy and to see Jesus!
I went to church with y'all as children at the Wesleyan Methodist Church on East Poinsett street. Knew all the Godfreys... James & Kate(my Mama's best friend Mae Kennemore). My sincere condolences!
With love to your family,
Patti Kennemore
