I don't know whoever is going to receive this message, but I want Billy Guess to always know that I want Ortiz is grateful for everything that he has taught me in Maximo. He was my mentor, my motivator, my inspiration and my good friend. May he rest in peace, and may he always shine in those high sky stars in the sky, it is literally 10:41 PM, November 26, 2022, which I just found out that my good friend Billy Guess passed away. He offered me a job to work in New Mexico because he had so much faith in me knowing that I can handle that position in Maximo, which I am so grateful for him because he taught me so much about life itself and how to be a leader. I love you, my brother Billy Guess and may God save you a thrown in the high heavens above. Miss you brother.
