“ Dr. Bob was a gifted and charismatic clinician. I had the honor to work under his supervision at West Florida Community Care Center. Dr. Bob's clinical supervision sessions with staff were legionary. I carry with me fond memories of his wit, graciousness at my clinical naivety, sage advice, clinical guidance and most of all, his gift of humor. It is with profound sorrow to hear of his passing. To Barbara and family - our thoughts, prayers and humble condolences.

“ When I think of Uncle Bob, his sense of humor is the first thing to come to mind. His enjoyment in his legendary practical jokes, and the way his eyes would wrinkle up and then his whole face would smile, and he would laugh with his whole body. He was fun to be around, and easy to be with.

And when I had occasion to reach out to him to “ask Dr. Bob” for his professional advice, he was generous with his time, and thoughtful and caring, and I will always be grateful to him for that.

We will miss him very much. Kate

“ Jess and Kris-
You have a special family and your dad was one of the kindest and funniest people I got to look up to and admire as a young person. I feel extremely fortunate to have known him.

Our condolences and love to you, your mom, and the whole family.

“ I remember in the late 60’s, when Uncle Bob was probably around 20. He had a little green MG, and I remember it being parked along the curb in front of Granny Ann and Grandpa Artie’s home in Bayside (NY). We thought he was the coolest uncle when he would take us for rides—with the top down, of course.

My family visited Bob and Barbara in New Hampshire one summer around 1970. I remember Uncle Bob had a guitar in those days and recall him playing a bit for us. It reinforced my perception of his coolness

In early 1990, Kim and I moved to New Orleans for my job. We have great memories of Pensacola during holiday long weekends with our baby Emma and being treated to delux bed and breakfast accommodations. It was so great having B&B so close by with all our other family so far away.

Uncle Bob was always a prankster. No family wedding was complete without the appearance of the blow-up doll or other large sexual object in the bride and groom’s sleeping quarters, regardless of where in the country the event was taking place. If you were an overnight guest in Pensacola, you could depend on some scary, life-like spider or reptile touching your feed as you slid feed under the covers.

“ Met Bob and Barbara a few times when they were in San Diego visiting Barbara’s sister Pat. Never knew Bob well but the times I remember he always had a sweet smile and was a very kind person. He will be missed. Much love to the family. Kathy Hargrove
