

Bobby O. Cornelius, Jr.

November 16, 1963 - April 14, 2023

Bobby Orliss Cornelius, Jr., 59, formerly of Lyman, South Carolina, passed away April 14, 2023.

A native of Corinth, Mississippi, son of the late Bobby Orliss Cornelius, Sr. and Etta Faye Blasingame, he was of the Christian faith. Bobby was determined, independent, never met a stranger, and always willing to lend a helping hand whenever possible. He enjoyed sitting outside and greeting cars as they passed by, bowling, checkers, and the occasional game of bingo. Bobby also enjoyed listening to inspirational quotes, with his favorite being, "God doesn't give us what we can handle, God helps us handle what we are given".

He will be missed by his family, as well as his friends at the Charles Lea Center.

Surviving are five brothers, Terry Cornelius (Sherry), Kenneth Cornelius (Susie), Michael Cornelius (Michelle), Timothy Corbett, and Daniel Corbett (Lacy); seven sisters, Lisa Cornelius, Cynthia Phillips (Kerry), Laura Cornelius (Don), Krista Heckel, Kimberly Peters (Joey), Brittany Labs (Thomas), and Elizabeth Mitchell (James); and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was also predeceased by one brother, Billy Joe Cornelius.

A graveside service will be held 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, April 18, 2023, at Wood Memorial Park, conducted by Rev. Keith Kelly.

The family is at their respective homes.

“ Bobby was very independent and funny, he loved to make you laugh, and always enjoyed being outside in the driveway waving at the cars as they passed by. He loved bowling, riding in our cars, playing bingo, and he always liked it when I read my daily quotes, and this was his favorite one:
God doesn't give us what we can handle, God helps us handle what we are given.
