“ Bobby and Linda lived just one street over from my wife and I in the mid 60's thru the early 70's. We became great friends. There was always laughter and great times, and we got together often. Bobby had a great, wry sense of humor. We all 4 were struggling as all young couples do, but Bobby and Linda's friendship made those early days the best of our lives. Rest in peace Bobby, my friend.

“ My beloved Uncle Bobby was more like a brother to me. He was only 10 when I was born so I got to be the pesky little sister figure! The last few years have been hard watching him deal with Parkinsons. Rejoicing that he is home now and completely healed! Linda, Robin, Chelsea and Zachary our love and prayers are with you all. Shelby & Keith
