“ I am so sorry for your terrible loss. This is an especially difficult time to find comfort from anywhere. I hope you find comfort in what Our Creator promises. He promises we will soon see our loved ones again in paradise on earth. Please try to find a little time to consider the warm thoughts for you from the God of all comfort at Isaiah 25:8, 9; Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3, 4.

“ Quick Family,

I feel like I need to share with you that I was there with Bobby at the scene of the accident. I was standing on the corner when the accident happened. I was with him until the ambulance arrived. We talked briefly. I was unable to attend the funeral but I needed to let you know that he was very calm and did not seem upset. He told me he was alone in the car. He didn't appear to be in a great deal of pain. I was very sad to learn that he passed. But it is clear from reading the comments here that he was very loved and is missed dearly. I'm very sorry for your loss. I discovered this site today while searching for his home address. I intend to send a letter to his wife. I figured out that I went to school at Cornerstone and Wade Hampton with Cindy. Cindy, I'm very sorry for your loss. I hope that you will find peace in knowing that your father was with someone and did not appear upset. I was able to put a jacket and sweatshirt under his head and he seemed to relax and just focused on being comfortable. I've prayed for your family a great deal and I'll continue to do that. I will check back on this site to see if there is anything I can do to help your family.

Sincerely,

Brent- you have no idea how much that helped me. My mother and Bobby were able to talk with the state trooper and coroner but I was having Mothers Day lunch with my daughter and didn't find out until later. Me and my dad lived in the same house so I'm not sure what address you have for my mom but I will make sure she receives your letter. I personally have been trying to find someone who I could talk to that was there with him and to find out that it was you helps my broken heart so very much. I don't know how to get in touch with you but I know that it would help Bobby and me to be able to talk to you. Thank you so much for staying with him and for reaching out to us.

“ Dear Family,
I am so sorry for your loss. My family and the Quick family lived two houses apart when we were growing up. Our yard was the neighborhood ball field. The Quicks and the Graingers became very good friends through the years. Linda and Joanne played with my sisters and I tried to be the parent. Our parents would let us walk to the local movie as long as some of the Quick or Thames boys walked with us. I can remember one summer, Big Brother Bobby taught us how to make chocolate bread pudding. He could always say something to make us laugh. He was a true friend through high school, too. He was always a gentleman and a good student. We always enjoyed seeing him at our McColl High School Reunions. He and our other neighbor Bill always came together and always had funny stories to tell us about school. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Remember, Bobby was a very special person. He and my husband Bobby were very dear friends. Now they can see each other again. Cordially yours, Brenda G. Jones

“ So sorry for your loss. Uncle Bobby was a kind person with a loving spirit. He was good to my mom (JoAnne) and the rest of his siblings. Everytime I saw him he would greet me with a smile and give me a hug. It didn't matter how much time had passed, when you saw him and spent time with him, you knew he loved you. I will miss our conversations, his hugs and his laugh. Praying for all of you during this difficult time. Love, Michelle, Robert & Carly Smith

“ Fran, Bobby Jr. Cindy, I just wanted to say how sorry I am for the loss of your husband, father and my brother. Bobby was a special, kind and loving person. I remember when he finished high school and went to work before joining the service, he gave his three younger siblings, JoAnne, Gary and myself our first allowance. I'll never forget it. I will miss him so much.
