“ Brandon was such a special person, always had a smile for everyone. I never passed Brandon any where in side or out side that he did not speak, good morning, have a good day, have a good evening, just always so happy and friendly. God called his special angel home, he will suffer no longer. We are so sad to have lost such a special person but Brandon I know in my heart that I will see you again. My heart goes out to his wife and beautiful baby girl and all of his family. Brandon is looking down on us with that great big wonderful smile and saying I am OK. Jervey Eye Group will never be the same with out you.

“ I knew Brandon for a few months but he was a great man. He loved Kristy and Mackenzie with all his heart and every day he came to bring Mackenzie to daycare he would say the cutest things about his daughter and wife. He always played with the kids here at the daycare and even the dog Chocolate. Before he left every morning he would joke with me and all the kids. Brandon would tell Mackenzie "no kissing the boys you are to young".

Then He would give Mackenzie a ton of kisses and walk out the door and always turn around come back and kiss his sweet girl several more times. He would then say going back to the car "be a good girl, I love you!" Every day he did this. He would text or call the daycare to check on his daughter or see if she needed anything, if Quinn my 5 year old answers the phone he would talk with him for a little. He made all the kids here feel special and important when he talked to them.

It was these things that Brandon did every day that showed how great of a man, husband and daddy he was. We will all miss him but we will never forget him or his great big heart that was filled with so much love.

Rest in Peace

Brandon's heart and smile was as big and tall as he was, always happy and always found a way to make other people laugh and forget their own problems for a while. I worked with Brandon and looked forward to hearing about the cute little things that he and "Baby Girl" as he affectionately called her, did on the way to day care every morning. He loved her and Christy dearly. Christy just know that in spite of his health he seemed to always put you and Mckenzie first, and I'm sure that if there's any line dancing going on in heaven he's in front teaching the Angels!

“ *We are so sorry for the loss of this wonderful man. We only know Brandon from Facebook. A joy to watch Kristy and Brandon's life -- so wonderful and then came Kenzie. Thank God for the many memories - they will help everyone through this horrific time.... Time will not stop the constant hurt and disbelief... it only teaches you ways to cope a little better. It is so hard to write something about this wonderful man. I didn't know him as well as I'm sure many other people, but I will never forget he always shared a smile. Brandon was one of the funniest people I had the pleasure of meeting. I am so sorry for your loss. My prayers are with his family, and know that God will walk closely with you.
