“ Brenda, I remember you the most as the lil girl playing...as the beautiful. sweet young girl entering high school...such a pretty smile. We love you and you will be missed! I wish we all could have been closer as we grew up our seperate ways. God's plan is a mystery to us in times like this..but we all are part of His plan and can take comfort in that...and knowing you are with Jesus now.##imported-begin##Will Ochiltree##imported-end##

“ Dear Brown family,
I am so sorry to hear of the recent loss of your dear loved one. I send my heartfelt condolences to the family.
When the enemy death strikes, there are no words to describe the sadness, the pain, the grief that the family experiences. We may even feel as King David did when his son Absalom died.(2 Samuel 18:33)
The scripture at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4 calls God the Father of tender mercies and the God of ALL comfort. So at difficult times such as this we need to turn to God for true comfort.
Our loving heavenly father has promised to reunite families back together by means of a resurrection.(John 5:28-29)
When Jesus Christ was here on the earth, he showed that he has the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his good friend Lazarus.(John 11:11-44). On another occasion, he brought back to life the only son of a widow.(Luke 7:11-17).
These miracles give us the assurance that one day soon Jesus will perform these same miracles for our beloved family members who have fallen asleep in death.
Here are some additional scriptures that I am sure that you will also find encouraging: Revelation 21:3-4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19

Sincerely,
Sandra###imported-begin##Sandra###imported-end##

“ Dear Roxie & family,
I am so saddened by the passing of Brenda. I remember growing up in Apache across from the grandparents, that's how Brenda and I connected and then we were always in school together. She had such a sweet spirit about her and so much life left to live, but God had a different plan. I am praying that God will wrap his loving arms around you and draw you up close as you face the difficult days ahead.

In love and sympathy,

“ My Dear Roxie,
Surely our Heavenly Father has great rewards for you when you go home. Your path in this life has not been an easy one but you have remained faithful to your calling. I understand that you hurt, but remember He has said Joy Comes in The Morning. There are many who care and support you with prayer and love. I love you.
