

Brenda Paquin

December 13, 1942 - August 31, 2024

Our beloved Brenda Cora French Paquin passed away August 31, 2024, surrounded by her family.

Brenda was born to the late Charles and Stella French of Tunbridge, Vermont, on December 13, 1942. She was a graduate of the South Royalton High School Class of 1960. Throughout her life, she lived in Claremont, New Hampshire, Danville, Vermont, and spent her later years in Travelers Rest, South Carolina. Despite her travels, her heart always found its way back to Tunbridge to attend the annual county fair. Brenda's life was a tapestry of dedication and service, woven through her work as a 4-H leader. She instilled a love of animals and sewing in her children and grandchildren, passing on skills that would enrich their lives and foster a sense of accomplishment. Her commitment to nurturing young minds was paralleled only by her devotion to her family.

Her professional life was marked by her tenure with the American Society of Dowsers, and she was also a secretary. Brenda found peace in watching birds and digging in her garden, a sanctuary where she could commune with nature. She was a master of canning and sewing, skills that not only brought her joy but also provided for her family. Brenda's hands were rarely still, always creating, always nurturing. Above all, Brenda loved being a mom, grandma, and matriarch. Her home was a haven of warmth, where laughter was the melody and love the rhythm. She was the heart of her family, guiding them with wisdom and supporting them with an unyielding strength that belied her gentle touch. Brenda's life was a testament to the virtues of love, selflessness, and generosity. She gave herself freely, asking for nothing in return but the happiness of those she held dear. Her memory will be cherished, her lessons held close, and her presence sorely missed.

Brenda was the cherished wife of the late Harry Edward Paquin, and together they built a legacy of love and kinship. She was a beloved sister to Cheryl Luce (Russel), Bonnie Caswell (Bill), and Steven French (Vicki).

Brenda's role as a mother was her crowning achievement, and she is survived by her children, Brenda L. Blakeman (Clay), Betty J. Pushee (Will), H. Scott Paquin (Kelly), and Debra F. Crown; former spouse, Bruce Crown; stepchildren, Daniel J. Paquin (Merri) and Sharon L. Spangler; and daughter-in-law, Karen Paquin. Her legacy continues through her twenty-three grandchildren and many great-grandchildren.

She was predeceased by a stepson, Harvy J. Paquin, Sr. and a step-grandson, Harvey Paquin, Jr.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, September 7, 2024, at 4:00 p.m., at The Wood Mortuary in Greer, South Carolina, with Pastor Dewayne Pruitt officiating.

Visitation will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, September 7, 2024, at The Wood Mortuary.

A memorial service will be held in Vermont at a later date.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.

“ What can I say. Brenda was like a second mother to me. Growing up my family use to visit a lot and I slept over all the time. It was like being with family. I kept in touch through the years through Facebook and Brenda would always tell me how proud she was of me starting my own business. I will miss her. I know we did not live close by each other but she will always be my family. Love you Brenda.

“ I have fond memories of working on the housekeeping crew at Point Comfort in West Danville in the 80's with Brenda. She was the mom of our small crew, and a wonderful role model. I'm so sad to hear of her passing, and hope that her family can find some comfort in the many memories of times with her.
