“ I went to highschool with brian as did most of the people here. My sophmore year in high school brain adn i had english class with Mrs. Gallo and we would always talk during here class and make everyone laugh. The goat thing is something steve koranda started in jr high but brian kept it alive in high school. I was in the big brother big sisters program and his little brother was my littlie brother. I would always report to brian about his brother the next day. He was one of the first people to become my friend in high school. He had such an attitude on him sometimes, that u wanted to get out of his way. He made fun of people like me but i knew he was joking around because thats how our friend ship is and was. Brian you will be missed foreverr and I love you like an older brother.##imported-begin##Matthew Nageotte aka Goat##imported-end##

“ Dear Reed Family,

I got to know your son very well as he lived with us for awhile. He called us from South Carolina from time to time. He was so excited to share the news of his promotions, his new truck and his upcoming apartment. He took his new role as a responsible adult seriously and even brought his laptop with him to Cleveland on his recent vacation so he wouldn't miss any orders for work. I am so impressed how this young man turned his life around, you should be very proud of him. Brian left a lasting impression on me and I will miss him very much. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##richard foster##imported-end##

“ Dear Reed Family,

I am deeply sorry for your loss. I am Steve's mom, and Brian lived with us in Mentor for about a year. I affectionately refer to him as "my boy in the basement". I love Brian and I will really miss him. He had a cooky, zany spirit that was infectious. He made everyone around him laugh. I saw him a few weeks ago; he was very proud of his accomplishments. I am proud of him too. My thoughts and prayers are with Brian and your family. God Bless.##imported-begin##faith lewis##imported-end##

“ I offer this for Brian Reed:

*Old Man, ferry this one across safely, bringing him swiftly and without detour
to the other side of the great sea.
Pole your boat here to the place and perform your duty.*

*His fare paid, his place secured,
so take him aboard and carry him away,
over the sea, following the setting Sun,
to the landing place before the great city where the Lord of Death rules.*

*Bring this one before he who sits on his throne.
Make his name known to the ruler there.
Make smooth the way, open the doors,
clear the path, unlock the gates.*

Lord, this one is starting on a great journey.

*Stand by him until he is safely home!###imported-begin##Imari Love

“ Hi,

I am hoping this isn't the Brian I know. But I think it is. This is Tammy Thompson from Mentor on the Lake, Dan Thompson's Mom. I am so sorry for your loss. Just the other day I was going through old school papers, and Dan had drawn a picture of kids in his class for school, probably for art. Anyways, it was of Brian and Amy Cook. This was on Sunday, and I started thinking about Brian and the Birthday party Dan came to. They made sand art. I think Dan still has it. As they grew up there friends changed, but when I saw Brian he was always friendly and I was always happy to see him. It has been several years since I saw him. I remember seeing you at Hiils and you would always update me on him. If there is any thing I can do drop a line. Again I am so so sorry for your loss.

Sincerely,

Tammy Thompson
