“ I am still in shock about the news. We are so sorry for your loss. Brielle was such a pretty and sweet young lady, inside and out. You should be so proud of her and I know you are. She was just a joy to be around and I looked forward to seeing her everyday that I picked Kristina up from her class. Kristina loved her and often pretended to be Brielle at home. She wanted to dress like her. Brielle was so good to her and all the children at Precious People. We miss her so much already. I can just imagine seeing her in the halls at Precious People with that wonderful smile she always had on her face. Our prayers are with the family. I just know she is playing with all the children in heaven. Heaven's light just got a little brighter because of her being there. God Bless!

“ *Brielle, You would be so proud of all of the people who have show their love for you. Words can't express the sorrow that our family is feeling. I remember holding you as a baby and toddler and always feeling the joy of being around you. You lit up a room. You would have been a great teacher on earth, but I know God has you playing with the little ones in Heaven and braiding the little girl's hair. You will be greatly missed at all times but especially at every Sunday lunch, every holiday, and every family event. It won't be the same without you, but know that you will never be forgotten. “ Words can not express how grateful I am to have known this amazing girl! She is one of the most amazing people I have ever met. I (as well as many of my co-workers) love Brielle, like you love a sister. She has the best personality anyone could dream of and she always put a smile on my face. She's the sweetest, most caring person I know and I thank God for letting me know her! She truly has touched my heart and I will never forget her!

This poem is one of my favorites and it speaks of the bond of the closest, truest of friendships (which I am positive more than just myself may have had the privilege to share with her) so I'd like to share it with everyone:

*i carry your heart with me(i carry it in my heart)i am never without it(anywhere i go you go,my dear; and whatever is done by only me is your doing,my darling) i fear
no fate(for you are my fate,my sweet)i want no world(for beautiful you are my world,my true) and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant and whatever a sun will always sing is you here is the deepest secret nobody knows (here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud and the sky of the sky of a tree called life;which grows higher than the soul can hope or mind can hide) and this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart i carry your heart(i carry it in my heart)*

“ I have just heard the news at church this morning; I am in shock! My love to each of you. I am praying for you.

It was my honor to have taught her and my life is richer for having know Brielle. I know you are proud of this beautiful young lady; she is now a beautiful angel with the Lord. Her work has just started in watching over all our children.

Take comfort in knowing Brielle is well in our Lord's home. We will see here soon!

“ Brielle's bright smiling face greeted us each day at Precious People and she will be forever missed. She made a special effort to give my boys a hug and tell them she loved them each day, even though she wasn't one of their current teachers. We love her and will miss her dearly.
