“ Brittany so many things ran through my mind when I read that you had passed, but it was a eye opener for me. Tomorrow is not promised to anyone, and we all need to get right with God like you did. I've know you since the 4th grade and you were always the same sweet person. You not only were my classmate but always one of my friends and I just wanted to say that I love you and I will always keep your son in my prayers as well as your parents and brother. You are truly missed. Rest sweet angel
